WITH THE District Agriculturist

By J. S. Duncan

Soil Erosion

This is one of the problems facing nearly every farmer. Recent years have seen enough moisture that the problem was not too great but in spite of this many fields show signs of wind erosion, other fields have been gullied by water. Proper use of machinery can be of great help in preventing both types of erosion. Too much speed with machinery pulverizes the top soil and wind and water erosion. Returning straw and stubble to the soil and leaves it subject to both and using forage crops in the crop rotation are the best methods to prevent erosion.

Care of Lawns

The lawn is the background and setting for the home grounds. The grass used for a lawn should be a species which is hardy and adaptable. The following suggestions may be helpful in keeping the lawn in good shape. Only mow the lawn often enough to prevent too long a top growth. Never cut lower than 1½ inches and during late August and September not lower than 2 inches. Do not mow at all after the middle of September. Remove the clippings from the first cut in the spring but not at other times unless there are a lot of clippings. A heavy application of well rotted manure in the fall and spring application of ammonium nitrate or Ammonium Sulphate will be of great benefit.

Handling Treated Seed

Farmers who find themselves with some seed left over which has been treated with a mercury compound must remember that this grain cannot be fed to livestock as it is poisonous. It is against the law to sell it for human consumption and the penalty for this is quite high. Such seed should be kept in bags clearly marked "Poison," or else buried where nothing can get at it.

Coin Bag Tea Has Pleasing Program

The Evening Group of the Irma W.A. held a very successful Coin Bag Tea in the basement of the Irma United church on Saturday last.

Those who had received the Coin Bags the previous year brought them to the tea and the following program was much enjoyed:

An excellent dramatization was then put on by the CGHT entitled "This is my Daughter."

Those taking part were Alice Tomlinson, Carol and Alice Fischer, Lorraine and Marian Smallwood, Connie Owen, Laraine Pond and Della Symington.

The program ended with a sing song led by Mrs. Merle Koudon with Mrs. Kirkman at the piano. Mrs. G. Fischer was M.C. and Mrs. H. Whilden pianist for the afternoon. A delicious luncheon was then served by the W.A. group.

NARCOTIC DRUGS

There are about 3,300 known narcotic addicts in Canada and it is realized that a great amount of human suffering is involved. A senate committee has been set up to investigate the problem and to bring in recommendations for its solution.

An addict is one who has acquired a physical or mental dependence on a narcotic drug and in nearly all cases the victim is quite unable to help himself. He will deceive his friends and commit almost any crime in his desperation to obtain the drug.

The records show that the people in the country that is now the Arab Kingdom cultivated the poppy in order to extract juice 5,000 years B.C. It was old in Greek legend before the time of Homer because he has Helen of Troy saying that the poppy juice had the power of "inducing forgetfulness of pain and the sense of evil."

Down through the ages the traffic has been the cause of wars and much suffering. India was the chief source of supply and China the chief market. There have been rumors that high schools in Canada are a source of addiction. Such is definitely not the case. In all of Canada there are only 26 addicts under twenty years of age. Seven of these are males and 19 females, but none of them were attending school. Most of the addicts are people with no fixed abode and no regular occupation. They often come from broken homes. Many of them have criminal records and many are not strong enough mentally to meet problems that arise, and use dope to induce forgetfulness and as a temporary escape from worry.

One ounce of heroin is worth about $12.00 wholesale and will make up about 1,750 capsules. These sell to the poor addicts for from $3.00 to $5.00 each, so the consumers pay about $5,200 to $8,700 for the cure.

It has been suggested that government depots should be set up to supply addicts with a maintenance dose at cost. In 1919

NWU Ltd. Elect Officers And Directors

At the Annual General Meeting of the Shareholders of Northwestern Utilities, Limited held in Edmonton on April 26 the following Directors were re-elected.

Mr. H. R. Milner, Mr. D. K. Yorath, Mr. F. A. Brownie, Mr. O. C. McIntyre, Mr. Howard Butler III, Mr. F. A. Smith, Mr. H. W. Francis, Mr. F. R. Martland, Mr. J. R. Munro, Mr. A. M. Macdonald.

At the Directors' Meeting held immediately after the Shareholders Meeting, the following Officers were re-elected.

Mr. H. R. Milner, Chairman of the Company, Mr. F. A. Brownie, President, Mr. D. K. Yorath, General Manager, Mr. F. A. Smith, Comptroller, Mr. C. L. Metcalfe, Secretary, Mr. J. B. Whelan, Treasurer, Mr. J. E. Roberts, an Assistant Secretary.

In U.S.A. some 44 such clinics were opened. By 1924 all were closed as it was found that addicts would get their allowance then search for more in the illicit market. The clinics were just an additional source of supply.

The ambulatory treatment consists of giving the addict a supply and expecting him to gradually taper off. This always leads to failure. The "cold turkey" treatment means a sudden withdrawal. It arouses resentment, is harsh, and most addicts return to the habit when released. The treatment at Lexington consists of medical care with sedatives for a week, then eight months institutional treatment with work, play, good food and encouragement. After leaving the hospital, supervision continues and about 60 per cent do not return so many of them may be cured. This treatment means that large sums of money will be required, but in relieving human misery nothing needful can be withheld. —F. W. Gershaw.

More than two million squirrel pelts are taken annually by Canadian trappers.

CLEAN UP — PAINT UP

The reams of eloquent verse written by poets each spring can hardly be attributed to inspiration from humans. The muddy fields which, overnight, become emerald carpets are the magic handiwork of Nature. The bursting buds which make of every tree an admired debutante and the multi-hued flowers pushing through the sun-warmed soil are Nature's creations.

In fact, about the only unsightly things we see about us in spring, sights that would jar the creativeness of any poet, are man-made: Drab, unpainted houses; grey-weather-beaten barns; broken down fences; weed infested yards and roadways.

While such eyesores are more evident in large urban centres where buildings are tightly concentrated, they can also be seen in many rural areas—but spread over more square miles.

Man, however, is trying to do something about eliminating them. In Canada each spring an annual beautification campaign is conducted urging citizens to clean up and paint up their properties. This year it officially starts on May 15. Plans are being formulated in several parts of Canada to make this the biggest campaign of this kind to date. In Saskatchewan a province-wide clean up, paint up program will be co-ordinated with the golden jubilee currently being celebrated there. In Essex county in Ontario, a farmstead improvement project is underway to beautify county farms in preparation for the world plowing matches which will take place there this fall. In Niagara Falls, already a garden spot, beautification will be more vigorously promoted to prepare for the world jamboree of Boy Scouts to be held there this summer.

But we shouldn't wait for special events to stir us into cleaning our surroundings. Beautification should be carried out when it is needed. However, if you must wait for an occasion, then jump on your local "clean up paint up" campaign wagon with vigor. If there is no local campaign, then help start one. Make Canada a beautiful place, not only for visitors but for Canadians—forever.

BRING BACK THE GOOD OLD DAYS

Fifty years of fighting, for fifty years we won. Licking untold heartaches, sticking till the job was done. We started out with oxen, and nothing else but grit. Our faith in God and country, our manhood and our wit.

Remember, back in the 80's, we turned Alberta's sod, With walking plow and oxen, and trust in a living God. A hundred miles to a railway, our roadway, just a trail, Fighting upward inch by inch, our body, hard as nails.

Those were really good old days, in a lot more ways than one, We got our daily meat supply, from the barrel of a gun. Our vegetables grew quite well, and soon we grew our bread, Our drink came from the river, and never reached our head.

Today in my old rocking chair, I'm rocking to and fro, Living again the old hard times, of fifty years ago. Give me back those good old days, with friends that never fail, No motor cars, no delinquents, no gangsters, and no jails. E. Wyatt, Westlock.

YOU WORK WHILE I LOAF, OR FIGURES DON'T LIE . . .

It appears that machines or something have taken over the work once done by man. According to some statistics which came this way, the general working men are called away doing nothing while only two Canadians crack the whip at each other.

You don't accept this statement? Gather ye round, and observe the following:

Population of Canada	15,000,000
People 65 and over	3,500,000
Balance left to do the work	11,500,000
People 21 and under	5,600,000
Balance left to do the work	5,900,000
People working for the Government	3,500,000
Balance left to do the work	2,400,000
People in the armed forces	1,000,000
Balance left to do the work	1,400,000
People in Dom., Prov., and County Offices	900,000
Balance left to do the work	500,000
Burns and others who won't work	225,000
Balance left to do the work	275,000
People in hospitals and asylums	225,000
Balance left to do the work	50,000
People in jail	49,998
Balance left to do the work	2

That leaves only you and me. Then you'd better get to work because I'm going fishing. G.M. Topics.

PLAIN TALK

from—
DR. F. MacNEILL SMITH
Liberal Candidate

Canada has one of the most advanced programs of social security in the world. Its aim is to ensure that the basic necessities of life are available to all citizens without eliminating the rewards of individual enterprise. In the 1953-54 budget, social insurance expenditures totalled $1,208,460,000, amounting to nearly 25 cents on every tax dollar. In 1955, 384 million dollars will be paid out in Family Allowances, reaching 2,000,000 Canadian homes each month, for the benefit of 5,100,000 children. Each child, by age 16, will receive $1,168. President Eisenhower has referred to this measure, introduced in 1944, as the most significant piece of social legislation of the past fifty years. When we add to this old age security measures, unemployment insurance, disability pensions, veterans care, to mention but a few of the services, we can see how far our Liberal governments have led us toward the goal of attaining minimum security for all. Certainly the goal is not fully attained; continuance of Liberal government means continued progress!

News is quite scarce as Kinsella folks, like everyone else, owing to road and weather conditions, have been compelled to curtail their social activities.

Mrs. K. Sowinski has been visiting her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. L. Smutz, of Sedgewick.

Miss Mary Ann Brown and Miss Stef Kosteriva were visitors to the city during the week-end.

Two members of the visiting team of students from St. Stephen's College, Edmonton, were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. R. Cormack and Mr. and Mrs. G. Paterson on Friday, prior to the meeting held in Viking.

LOOKING FOR A BARGAIN?

With prices so much higher than they were before the war, bargains are hard to find these days.

For example... materials used in building houses have gone up 179%.

Food is up 107%.

The average wholesale price of all the things people buy has gone up 116% (and those are government figures) but during the same period the price of gasoline has gone up only 35% (less than one-third of the average).
